GREAT EXHIBITION. HUNT'S HANDBOOK COMPLETE, Price 6s.

By ROBERT HUNT, Professor of Mechanical Science, Government School of Mines.

"Every care has been taken to render this compilation a record worthy of preservation, as giving within a limited space a faithful description of certainly one of the most remarkable events which has ever taken place upon this island, or in the world,—the gathering together from the ends of the earth, of the products of human industry, the efforts of human thought."—Extract from "The Builder."

"The most instructive guide to the Exhibition while it is open—we have no doubt that this 'Handbook' will become hereafter one of the most popular monuments and histories of the actual gathering of the nations."—Edinburgh.

"The most complete and popular guide published. Useful in the Exhibition, and agreeable afterwards as a reminiscence of what was seen in the great year of 1851."—Spencer's Magazine.

Let no one imagine that because the Great Exhibition will shortly be closed that the 'Handbook' is not therefore needed; on the contrary, it should be read and retained by all as a compact and portable record of what they have seen exhibited."—Literary Gazette.

GREAT EXHIBITION, 1851.
Just published (dedicated, by express permission, to his Royal Highness the Prince Albert, &c.) of

THE INDUSTRIAL ARTS of the NINETEENTH CENTURY: a series of illustrations of the choicest specimens produced by every Nation at the Great Exhibition of Works of Industry, 1851.

By M. DIBBY WATT, Architect.
Part No. 1 will contain:—The Ammon, by Kim, of Berlin—Painted "Lac" Work from Laure, Bugera, enriched with Manumening, by Zolaga, of Madrid—Specimens of Tunisian Embroidery.

Mons. Day and Son, lithographers to the Queen, 17, Great-street, Lincoln's Inn-fields, have made arrangements by which the object, selected for illustration will be drawn on stone by first-rate artists, and will be represented in their proper colours, the aim of the publishers being to furnish a true and lasting memorial of the condition of the industrial arts throughout the world at the present epoch.

Believing that it will be the wish of many to preserve the best possible record of this great event, the publishers have calculated upon a very extended sale, and have determined to reduce the price to a rate altogether unprecedented in the history of lithography. The work will be in folio, and will appear in fortnightly parts. Every number, price 7s. 6d., will contain four fully coloured plates, with descriptions of the objects, and critical and explanatory remarks. The work complete will comprise from 120 to 150 plates.

London: DAY and SON, 17, Great-street, Lincoln's Inn-fields.
